Meyer Completes Human Resource Management School

Jefferson City, MO – Mid America Bank is proud to announce that Regina “Gina” Meyer, SVP, Director of Human Resources & Public Relations, completed the 22nd annual Human Resource Management School presented by the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

The Human Resource Management School provides the foundation for new or veteran human resource professionals to tie together important issues in human resource management with a bottom-line understanding of the business of banking. Designed specifically for financial services HR professionals, this program helps to expand knowledge of the banking industry and human resource management, improve employee performance and establish a network of colleagues with whom to interact and exchange ideas. The HR Management School provides an opportunity for students to learn from respected industry experts about key issues in human resource management.

Meyer, who has been with Mid America Bank for over six years and serves on the bank’s leadership team, received a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with triple majors in Marketing, Human Resources, and Business Management from Columbia College. She is also a graduate of the Missouri Bankers Association’s School of Bank Management.

Mid America Bank would like to congratulate Meyer on this achievement.
