Mid America Bank Promotes Weaver to Loan Officer

Jefferson City, MO – Mid America Bank has announced the promotion of Dalton Weaver to the position of full-time Loan Officer. Weaver will reside at the Wardsville Branch, where he'll assist customers with their consumer and commercial loan needs.

Weaver brings a strong foundation in banking, having previously been a Credit Analyst with Mid America Bank. "My goal is to make the loan process as smooth as possible, while also providing tailored financial guidance to support my customers along the way," Weaver said. I take pride in offering tailored financial solutions to help clients achieve their goals, whether that's growing a business or planning for the future.

A native of central Missouri, Weaver earned a bachelor's degree in business from Missouri State University. He resides in Jefferson City with his wife, Lauren. He is a supporter of the Special Learning center, a member of St. Joseph's Cathedral and is a graduate of the Jefferson City Chamber of Commerce's 2024 Leadership class.

Clients interested in exploring loan options with Dalton Weaver are encouraged to stop by our Wardsville Branch at 1511 Friendship Road or call 573-635-0019.
